

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNIQUE BRADLEY,

Plaintiff(s),

v.

RAQUEL L. MCCARTER, et al.,

Defendant(s).

Case No. 2:20-cv-02077-KJD-NJK

ORDER
[Docket No. 10]

Pending before the Court is Defendant's motion to vacate the inmate early mediation that is currently set for November 12, 2021. Docket No. 10.<sup>1</sup> Defendant indicates that Plaintiff has not been responsive to communications, hindering the ability to comply with the requirements for the mediation. See id. at 2-3. The Court has been informed that Plaintiff very recently provided a new telephone number to the Clerk's Office of (702) 863-1697. In light of that circumstance, the motion to vacate will be DENIED without prejudice so that the parties can communicate in an effort for the mediation to proceed as scheduled. Defense counsel must immediately provide a copy of this order to the mediator.

Lastly, the Court CAUTIONS Plaintiff that she is required to update her contact information in prompt fashion by filing a written notice. Local Rule IA 3-1. The Court further CAUTIONS Plaintiff that she is required to comply with all Court orders. See, e.g., Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(f). The Court expects compliance with the governing rules and orders moving forward.

<sup>1</sup> In violation of the local rules, Defendant's motion appears to seek all sorts of relief, ranging from vacating the mediation, staying the case, and issuing an order to show cause. But see Local Rule IB 2-2(b). The Court will address herein only the request to vacate the mediation.

1 Failure to comply with the governing rules and orders may result in serious repercussions,
2 up to and including the imposition of case-dispositive sanctions.

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.
